

Written Offer for Source Code

For third party technology that you receive from Tenstorrent in binary form which is licensed under an open source license that gives you the right to receive the source code for that binary, you can obtain a copy of the applicable source code from our public git repositories at:

<https://github.com/tenstorrent/>

or by submitting a written request to:

Tenstorrent
Open Source Request
2550 Great America Way
Ste 150
Santa Clara, CA 95054-1160

Or, you may send an email to Tenstorrent at:

opensource@tenstorrent.com

Your request should include:

- The name of the component or binary file(s) for which you are requesting the source code
- The name and version number of the Tenstorrent product containing the binary
- The date you received the Tenstorrent product
- Your name
- Your company name (if applicable)
- Your return mailing address and email
- A telephone number or e-mail address in the event we need to reach you.

We may charge you a fee to cover the cost of physical media and processing. Your request must be sent 1. within three (3) years of the date you received the Tenstorrent product that included the component or binary file(s) that are the subject of your request; or 2. in the case of code licensed under the GPL v3, for as long as Tenstorrent offers spare parts or customer support for that product model.

Any information you provide to us as part of your request will be used solely to process the request and will be deleted upon fulfillment of the request.
